THE ABSENCE OF THE GREATER PURPOSE

A while back I watched an interview with a prominent Western pop star, perhaps the most famous singer in the world. The interviewer asked him: “What is your life’s purpose?”

After a long period of silence, the singer responded, “My goal is to inspire people.”

Inspire them to do what exactly? And why did you choose this goal? The interviewer didn't ask these questions, he just started heaping praise on the young singer's meaningless answer.

★ The question of life's purpose is a highly uncomfortable question for westerners. This is because the question itself contains an implicit inquiry into the individual's belief in the afterlife and, consequently, their belief in God.

THE ABSENCE OF THE GREATER PURPOSE

Because the purpose of something cannot be a part of that thing. The purpose of an exam is graduation or advancing to the next grade.

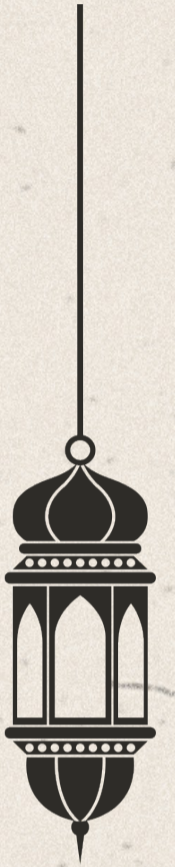

★ The purpose of work is to earn money or serve society. If an exam ended by burning all answer sheets, what's the difference between writing correct or incorrect answers?

Similarly, if the effects of your actions in this world didn't extend beyond this world, what's the difference between doing good and doing harm?

Islam is the only path on Earth that offers humans a solution to this problem. You live to obtain eternal rewards in the Hereafter.

God says in the Quran:

“Indeed, those who say, ‘Our Lord is Allah’ and then remain steadfast - the angels will descend upon them, [saying], ‘Do not fear and do not grieve but receive good tidings of Paradise, which you were promised.’ We [angels] were your allies in the worldly life and [are so] in the Hereafter. And you will have therein whatever your souls desire, and you will have therein whatever you request”

The goal is eternity in Paradise – a massive and sublime goal incomparable to any objectives filling self-help books, such as “Creating a Successful Company” or even “Changing the World”!

What’s the purpose of changing the world when you will be leaving it sooner than you can imagine?

This is why men and women in the West fall into the traps of depression, suicide, and drugs when they realize that even achieving these worldly goals doesn’t protect them from feeling the futility of life.

★ The absence of purpose makes the individual miserable and destroys society. The only purpose that can save a person from this fate is striving for the pleasure of Allah and the eternal bliss of paradise.

THE SAFE REFUGE

FIND REFUGE: ISLAM'S ANSWERS FOR TODAY.

THE ABSENCE OF THE GREATER PURPOSE

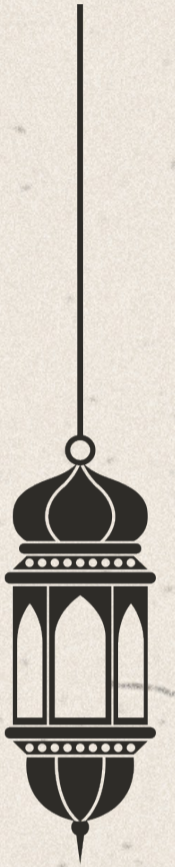

The difference between this goal and any worldly goal is not only that it is greater beyond measure, but also that it is possible to achieve it by 100%. Yes. If you sincerely and earnestly try, you will succeed in reaching it. It all depends on you alone. A person may use up his entire life trying to reach a specific amount of money, for example. But due to various factors, he fails to achieve that goal.

But if he works towards reaching Paradise to the best of his ability, then his destiny is undoubtedly Paradise. In Islam, there is no specific number of prayers to reach, no fixed number of fasting days, nor good deeds. The whole matter revolves around intention and effort.

Allah Almighty says in His Noble Book: ‘{And I did not create the jinn and mankind except to worship Me}’

★ Since this is the purpose of creation, one has succeeded in the test if they lived in accordance with this goal.

This does not mean that a person should live ascetically, renouncing all worldly possessions, enduring poverty and misery, hoping only for Paradise.

In quran, it is said: 'Whoever does righteous deeds, whether male or female, while being a believer - We will surely cause him to live a good life, and We will surely give them their reward [in the Hereafter] according to the best of what they used to do.'

So, even to achieve materialistic goals in this world, it requires a certain period of suffering. In order to earn money, one must work long hours, perhaps years and years.

★ In order to have a beautiful body, one must engage in strenuous exercise and deprive themselves of delicious foods, and so on.

As for the greater goal, it ensures happiness and inner peace in this world, as well as bliss in the Hereafter, all in exchange for resisting the desires of the self for a limited number of years. Which deal is more profitable than that?.

No one dies from the first dose of cocaine or methamphetamine. The first dose is often small, taken cautiously, and produces euphoria. Then comes the second dose, a little larger, then larger and larger. The dosage gradually increases until the required dose for achieving euphoria becomes precisely the lethal dose.

Talking about the destruction of individuals due to their pursuit of sexual pleasure is kind of a taboo topic in Western civilization.

After all, it's related to the sacred cow: personal freedom.

The Western citizen knows very well that one out of every four children in the United States grows up without a father, meaning more than 18 million children. The reason is casual relationships in which fathers leave mothers to face their fate alone with the child.

SEXUAL DEVIANCY

But the unspoken truth is that the pursuit of pleasure through sexual deviance destroys the individual first and foremost before it destroys society.

The keyword is “dopamine.”

At first, the brain becomes accustomed to doses of dopamine triggered by natural sexual activity.

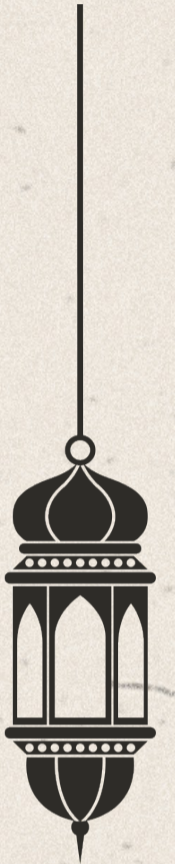

★ Then, it starts demanding larger and larger doses. The obsessed individual thus seeks a new type of pleasure, imagining that the next station is the last.

Here’s the astonishing and shocking statistic:

In 2017, Gallup conducted a study on the percentage of American citizens who identified themselves as part of the “LGBT” community.

The result was that 4.5% of citizens identified themselves in this way. This percentage seems astronomical compared to any other country.

But that’s not the shocking part.

T H E S A F E R E F U G E

SEXUAL DEVIANCY

Four years later, in 2021, another report stated that the percentage had risen to 5.6%. An increase of 1.1% in just four years!

But then, in 2022, the percentage rose to 7.1%!!

⋮ This is impossible since societal changes don't happen this rapidly, especially considering that the population increases by less than that, less than 1.5% annually, meaning a certain number of people changed their ★ answers during that year.

Regardless of whether this contradicts their theory that sexual orientations cannot be controlled and that they are inherent, it indicates an important thing: the spread of sexual deviancy and the absence of restrictions have made the new generation chase new and different sexual satisfactions. Natural sexual activity is no longer enough to release the dopamine they crave!

Just as the pursuit of drug induced euphoria ends in death, the pursuit of dopamine ends in AIDS or depression.

SEXUAL DEVIANCY

⋮ Pursuing instant pleasure destroys a person's happiness in the long run, and their happiness depends on their ability to resist the allure of momentary pleasures.

This does not mean that Islam prohibits a person from enjoying lawful desires. On the contrary, the Prophet, peace be upon him, encouraged the youth to get married. He said, 'O young people, whoever among you is able to marry, should marry, for it restrains the eyes and protects the private parts. But whoever is unable, then he should fast, for it is a means of diminishing desire.' [Narrated in Bukhari and Muslim]

Parallel to providing lawful means to satisfy desires, Islam has legislated severe penalties for those who deviate. These penalties are criticised by the West as barbaric, not taking individual freedom into consideration. The truth is, these penalties are what protected Islamic societies from degradation into the depths of promiscuity and sexual deviation. These

On July 12, 2022, a discussion took place in the US Congress regarding whether men can undertake the task of pregnancy and childbirth.

During the debate, a professor from California accused Congressman “Josh Hawley” of being transphobic because he does not believe that men can become pregnant.

GENDER MADNESS

This story is not shocking to any American or European citizen. However, for any human from any other country, this is utter madness. Why?!

The answer is in two words: moral relativism.

★ If you are a non-Muslim Western citizen, you believe in the concept of “render unto Caesar what is Caesar’s, and render unto God what is God’s.” Therefore, when the government tells you that homosexuality is natural, you remove “God” from the equation and follow what society tells you.

THE SAFE REFUGE

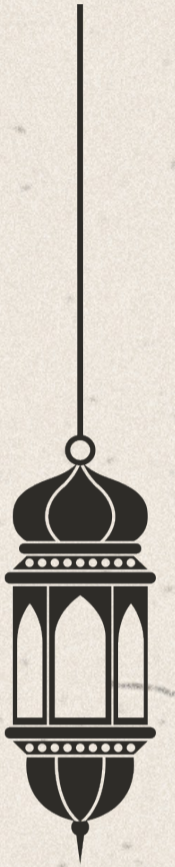

GENDER MADNESS

To normal people, the gender issue may seem so laughably ridiculous. However, in reality, it is terrifying.

Imagine a girl going through puberty, feeling a sense of shyness and tension due to the natural hormonal changes that all females undergo during that stage. She goes online in search of a solution and stumbles upon a blog written by someone discussing the possibility of gender transitioning. She decides to visit a doctor who helps her undergo a brutal surgical procedure to remove her breasts, followed by injecting her with massive amounts of hormones that cause infertility and deformities in bone structure, voice, and physical appearance.

⋮ If you think this is a crazy story, look up the name “Chloe Cole”. That is her exact story. If you believe that this is a rare occurrence, search for “detransitioners” to see the same horror repeated over and over again.

★ But the question now is: What’s next?

T H E S A F E R E F U G E

The cancer of sexual freedom will never stop, and we all know that.

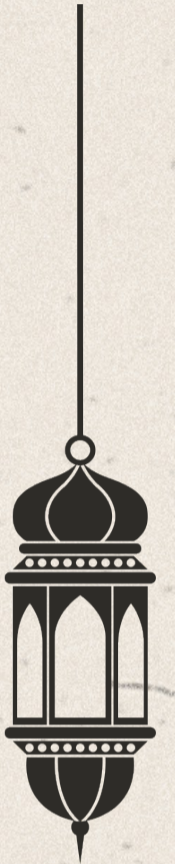

Accepting pedophilia? Incest? Any form of disgusting madness will become part of the law after transgenderism becomes a natural part of society.

⋮ And more importantly, woe betide you if you try to prevent your children from ‘expressing themselves’ by becoming deformed monsters whose bodies are destroyed before they reach the legal age of consent. Child protection agencies will intervene and take your children ★ away from you. Don’t believe me?

Search online for the name “Rob Hoogland.”

That’s just one example among thousands of children who undergo, either medical transitioning procedures (i.e., mutilation surgeries). or take hormone blockers.

There are at least thousands of children being prepared to become deformed monsters for the rest of their lives. Remember, if you see this as wrong, it is just your opinion, and your opinion has no value because you do not make the laws. The lawmakers see this as freedom, and a significant portion of society sees it the same way.

The only protection is to uproot the seed of moral relativism completely and throw it into that volcano where they threw that cursed ring from lord of the rings.

But to uproot that seed, there must be one powerful, comprehensive, decisive moral order
And that standard is Islam... and Islam alone.

Allah said in the Quran

“So direct your face toward the religion, inclining to truth. [Adhere to] the fitrah of Allah upon which He has created [all] people. No change should there be in the creation of Allah . That is the correct religion, but most of the people do not know”

Allah Also said in the Quran about how satan deceives people

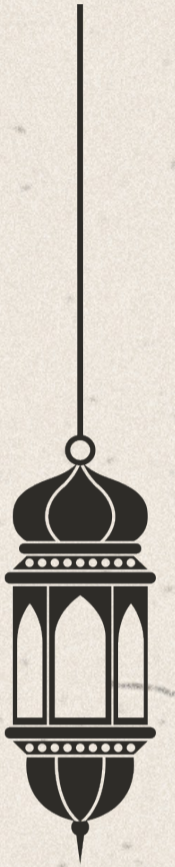

“And I will mislead them, and I will arouse in them [sinful] desires, and I will command them so they will slit the ears of cattle, and I will command them so they will change the creation of Allah.” And whoever takes Satan as an ally instead of Allah has certainly sustained a clear loss”

It is astonishing that Islam prophesied that Satan would tempt the children of Adam to alter the creation of Allah. Even a hundred years ago, let alone fourteen centuries ago, this was something unimaginable.

There is no concept of moral relativism in Islam, because there is only one source of ethics, and that is Allah, the Almighty.

★ What about those who are mentally disturbed or sadistic, seeking to harm children under the guise of therapy? In such cases, Islam commands strict punishments to protect society from such monsters.

In Islam, you live not to satisfy your desires, but to please the Lord of the Worlds, and your reward is the eternal Paradise in the Hereafter.

The girly dream of motherhood and child-rearing, have been replaced with the dream of attaining an executive position in one of Silicon Valley's companies.

The question is: What caused this mental distortion for men and women?!

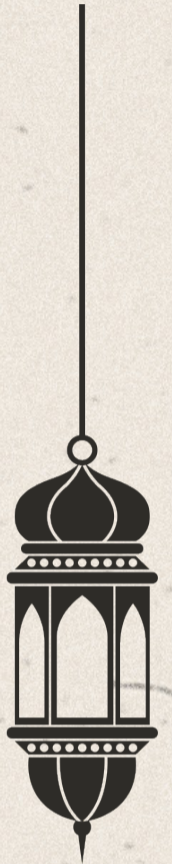

The reason is that building a family goes against all the materialistic standards that govern the Western mind.

Sexual freedom?! You are confined to only one partner. Spending money on luxuries and entertainment?! Forget about when you have children.

Responsibility free life?! Responsibilities and duties are all you have when you have a family.

And in return for what?

I - as a man - can easily get access to sex through dating apps, why would I sacrifice my life to create a healthy next generation?

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE WESTERN FAMILY

Let the next generation go to hell... I'll be dead by then.

Here's a part of the catastrophe.

According to the "National Fatherhood Initiative® 2019" fatherlessness causes the following:

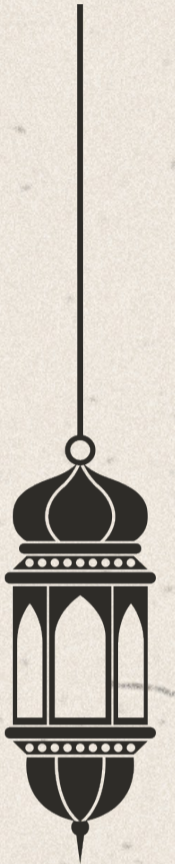

A 400% increase in the likelihood of the family falling below the poverty line.

A 200% increase in the likelihood of the child not completing basic education.

A 200% increase in the likelihood of the child suffering from obesity.

- A 700% increase in the likelihood of teenage pregnancy.

The other shocking part is the number of abandoned children. According to the same source, the number is 18.4 million children.

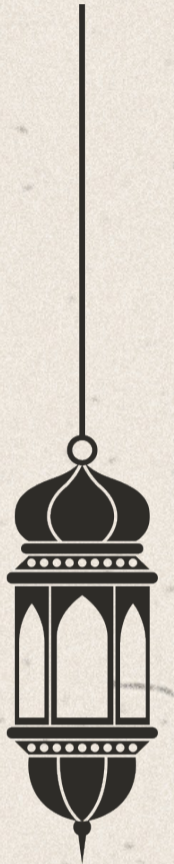

★ It's a shocking reality that has not yet fully revealed its poisonous effects.

And just as Nietzsche predicted the rivers of blood that would flow in the twentieth century as a result of the spread of atheism and the “death of God”, It's easy to predict further collapses in Western societies due to the collapse of the primary building unit... the family.

But... are there any signs of hope, or is the future entirely bleak?

The truth is, despite the ongoing deliberate destruction of society caused by the liberal media, we have recently witnessed an increase in the number of converts to Islam, especially among the youth.

These young people have witnessed the results of individualism and the pursuit of momentary pleasures, and they have seen the tragic ends of famous stars who committed suicide and athletes whose lives ended due to an overdose of drugs.

They have seen the result of a person living chasing short-sighted pleasure, and they began searching for a path that would lift their gazes towards the sky. They found no path that aligns with their nature except Islam. It is the safe haven that Allah, the Almighty, has revealed for humanity.

The Prophet, peace be upon him, said:

“Each of you is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock. The man is a shepherd in his family and is responsible for his flock. The woman is a shepherd in her husband’s house and is responsible for her flock. The child is a shepherd over his father’s wealth and is responsible for his flock. The servant is a shepherd over his master’s property and is responsible for his flock. So, each of you is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock.”

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE WESTERN FAMILY

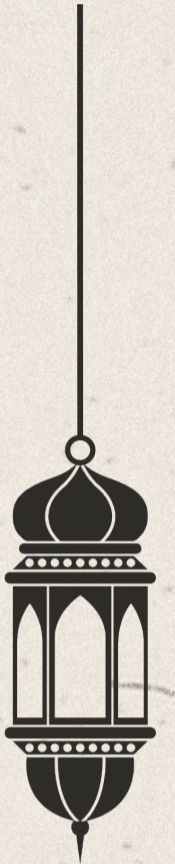

The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: “Whoever has two daughters and treats them kindly, they will be a means of protection for him against the hell fire.”

He, peace be upon him, also said: “Whoever is pleased that his provision be expanded and his life be extended, let him maintain the ties of kinship.”

In return, the father and mother are well aware that by nurturing their children according to Islam, the children will grow up to obey the command of Allah and His Prophet, becoming righteous and benevolent children to their parents.

Allah, the Almighty, says:

“[And We have enjoined upon man [care] for his parents. His mother carried him, [increasing her] in weakness upon weakness, and his weaning is in two years. Be grateful to Me and to your parents; to Me is the [final] destination.”

In Islam, there is a remarkable balance between the concept of individuality and independence in its correct form, and the consideration for the societal framework.

Every individual will come alone on the Day of Judgment, and Allah, the Almighty, will hold them accountable. Allah, the Exalted, said, "And [for] every person, We have imposed his fate upon his neck, and We will produce for him on the Day of Resurrection a record which he will encounter spread open. [It will be said], 'Read your record. Sufficient is yourself against you this Day as accountant.'"

He also said, "And no bearer of burdens will bear the burden of another."

On the other hand, Islam regards the community as a unified entity, safeguarded by its individuals and protecting its individuals.

The Prophet, peace be upon him, said, "None of you truly believes until he loves for his brother what he loves for himself."

As for the relationship between Muslims and others, listen to the words of the Prophet, spoken fourteen centuries ago, at a time when racism was a natural part of human interaction: The Prophet said, "There is no superiority for an Arab over a non-Arab, nor for a non-Arab over an Arab. Neither is the white superior over the black, nor is the black superior over the white - except by righteousness. People are all the children of Adam, and Adam was created from dust."

“If your things don’t make you happy you are not getting the right things” This statement was made by a famous American actor as he received an award.

I wondered to myself when I heard that sentence: Was this what (Robin Williams) believed? The man won all possible awards and was immensely wealthy... and yet ended his life by suicide!

The question “Does money buy happiness?” has a definitive answer backed by evidence, statistics, and psychological studies:

★ Money that meets the essential needs of a person does bring happiness. However, if you have enough food, shelter, and perhaps a little bit of entertainment, any increase in the number displayed in your bank account won't bring you any increase in self appreciation, or inner peace. None at all.

Here's the question: Why do people still chase after increasing that number in any way possible?

★ It's because their minds have been conditioned by large corporations to link consumption to their human value.

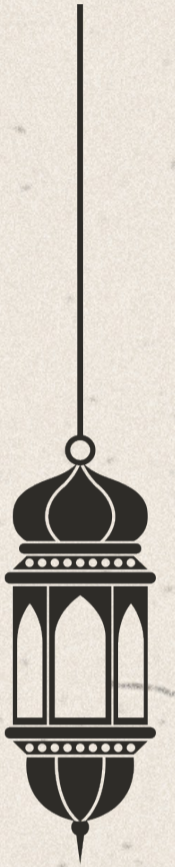

"I consume, therefore I exist" is the slogan of the modern era.

But consuming what? More foods and drinks? Clothes and jewellery? Electronic devices and cars?

The answer is: everything, everywhere, all the time.

Do you have an old model car? Oh, what a failure you are.

Is your phone not the latest model? You must be ashamed of yourself. What about your children? Do you want them to feel inferior compared to their peers when they see their friends having the latest PlayStation or Xbox?

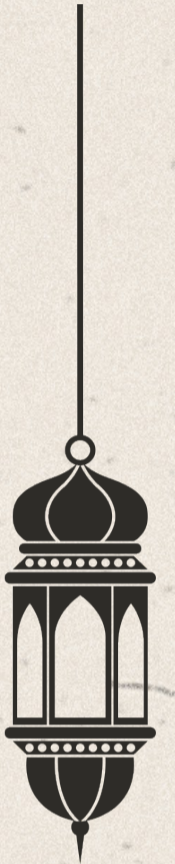

And you, dear woman, where are your expensive jewellery, cosmetics, handbags, and shoes? Don't you want to show off on social media like your peers? Without these things you aren't worth much.

Why do corporations promote "the value of consumption" as equivalent to "the value of a human being"? Because if people stopped consuming, those companies would go out of business.

Can you then blame Apple or Samsung for releasing devices that only last for five years max?

★ BUT - You might ask - what's the problem with that? Let me tell you that the real problem is not that consumption pollutes the planet and ruins the seas, oceans, and deserts.

The problem is that it creates an imaginary link between human worth and the price of the items they carry in their hand or wear on their body. Human beings have devolved from being honoured creations of God whom the angels bowed to, to becoming mere collections of prices attached to what they wear and use.

In 2019, a cheap shoe manufacturer built a fake luxury brand and sold the same shoes they usually sell for $10 to $20 for $600 to $900. They promoted the store through “social media influencers.” Of course, the experiment was a resounding success. And they published the whole experiment on youtube.

One of the customers, when interviewed during the store’s opening, said, “My friends will be amazed and ask me where I bought these amazing shoes,” while holding a shoe from “pay less “ the original brand.

As we seek to feel important, content, and satisfied with ourselves, our materialistic needs expand until they become the only thing humans strive to satisfy, like someone drinking from the sea to quench their thirst. The more they drink, the thirstier they become.

CONSUMERISM

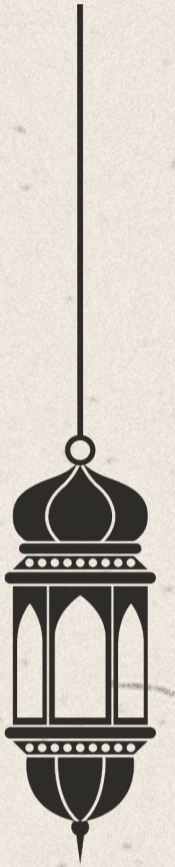

This is why millions of people run tirelessly, stressed and anxious, with their eyes fixed on the prize... whether it's a car, a house, or even an electronic device, many of them die before attaining what they wanted.

In contrast, a Muslim lives peacefully, content, and happy with their fate... because their eyes are fixed on what's immeasurably most precious and significant .. and eternal paradise.

★ The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: "Whoever among you wakes up secure in his home, healthy in his body, and has sustenance for the day, it is as if the whole world has been brought into his possession"

The Prophet, peace be upon him, set an example for his companions in asceticism. He was a prophet ruling over an entire nation, and yet he would not light a fire for cooking in his house for three months straight!

This does not mean that a person should live in poverty, but rather in balance.

T H E S A F E R E F U G E

Allah, the Most High, says:

“And those who, when they spend, are neither extravagant nor niggardly, but hold a medium (way) between those (extremes).”

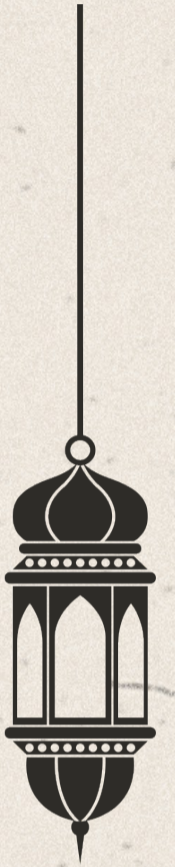

[Quran 25:67].

Asceticism towards worldly possessions dignifies a person.

Prophet Mohamd said: “Renounce the world and Allah will love you, and renounce what people possess and people will love you.”

The Prophet, peace be upon him, said: “True richness is not through having many possessions, but true richness is the richness of the soul.”

Consumerism in Islam is a concept opposed to human dignity.

★ Humans are endowed by Allah with a soul and their primary concern should not be limited to physical pleasures such as food and drink. Rather, they should aspire to higher pursuits.

As mentioned in the hadith: “may a dishevelled, dusty person who is turned away from people’s doors, if he were to swear by Allah, Allah would fulfil his oath.”

The entire wealth in this earth will not even weigh the weight of a mosquito’s wing in the scales of the Hereafter.

This is how a muslim should view this worldly life.
